

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The City Council will meet next Tuesday, sitting as a Board of Equalization. A clothing drummer who arrived yesterday had the small item of 1600 pounds of baggage.

About 2200 pounds of mail came in on yesterday's train. Much of it consisted of Congressional documents forwarded by Delegate Mark Smith to his constituents.

Owing to the sickness of Secretary Fulwiler and the absence of William Christy, the advertised elections of the Salt River Valley and Maricopa canals did not take place yesterday.

There was no train from the West at Maricopa yesterday, there being a serious washout near Gila Bend. The train from the East managed to cross the Picacho break, bringing three days' mail.

Mrs. Julia Doherty has asked for letters of administration upon the estate of her murdered husband, James Doherty. The hearing is set for August 9, at 10 a. m.

The directors of the Fair Association met yesterday. The prize offered for a militia drill contest was withdrawn. To the list of premiums was added a spring trap for a pigeon shooting match and also a trap to the gun club making the highest score.

Thirty men of Company D, Ninth Infantry, commanded by Captain Lee, leave McDowell tomorrow and will take the train at Tempe on their way to Huachuca, where they will be stationed. A detail of ten men is left behind to collect and haul the remaining army stores.

PERSONALS.

Governor Wolfley is expected home today.

Curt Miller, of the Tempe News, visited Phoenix yesterday.

Geo. N. Gage, W. J. White and A. J. Peters, of Tempe, were on the streets of Phoenix yesterday.

Mrs. M. G. Hill and Mrs. C. W. Miller leave tomorrow on a trip to New York and Pennsylvania.

The editor of the Herald and Brewster Cameron had an extended conference at Maricopa yesterday, between trains.

Assistant United States District Attorney Colvert Wilson has returned to Phoenix, after a visit to Southern California.

T. Neustadter, Tucson, Colvert Wilson, Phoenix, Abram Humphries, St. Louis, and H. Wilcox, Dallas, Tex., are registered at the Mills House.

D. P. Conroy, of the Maricopa and Phoenix railroad, leaves this morning for California. He will enjoy along the sea-coast a vacation of three weeks.

H. B. Griffiths, R. Gratheway and Thomas Williams, of Prescott, G. H. Robinson, New York, and D. H. Arnold, San Francisco, are at the Commercial.

Probate Judge Baxter was suddenly attacked last Thursday by erysipelas of the face, and for three days was confined to his room. He was again at his office yesterday, looking somewhat the worse for his illness.

There were four culprits before the bar of the Recorder's court yesterday. One, for carrying concealed weapons was fined $3; three ordinary drunks were fined $5, $5, and $7.50 each.

Frank Nicholson, Superintendent of the Yuma Copper mines, left yesterday with Mrs. Nicholson, for Oakland, Cal., where he will place himself under surgical treatment. The kick received by him during the late runaway has caused a serious injury that demands attention.

Thomas E. Dalton, who has been for three years Principal of the Phoenix high school, has accepted the position of Principal of the Tombstone schools for the ensuing term of ten months, at a salary of $125 per month. His labors will begin September 8. Mr. Dalton is a young man of industry and of high educational acquirements and Tombstone is fortunate in securing his services.
